Wwe monday night raw news inc

Welcome to our WrestlingINC.com Live WWE Monday Night RAW Viewing Pool. Today's broadcast comes from Tropicana Field in St. Petersburg, FL.- The post-TLC edition of WWE RAW opens with a standard video package. We're live from the WWE ThunderDome in Tropicana Field in St. Petersburg, Florida, as Tom Phillips greets us. He is joined by ringside Samoan Joe and Byron Saxton. They're talking about yesterday's paid-for field of vision and today's six-man street fight and Randy Orton's reaction to winning his Firefly Inferno on TLC. This is Flair's first RAW appearance at ThunderDome, and his first RAW appearance since mid-June. She hits the ring when we get a video package showing how Flair returned to TLC as Lana's replacement, teaming raw women's champion asuka to win golds in Jax and Shayna Baszler. Flair said he's at the ThunderDome and what the ThunderDome would look like without the Queen. He boasts of winning gold on his first night back and says nothing has changed with the Queen in the last six months. He then talks about his partner and a friend, some of them saying it's the heart of the department. Flair introduces Asuka and out he comes with both his titles. Flair and Asuka stand together as Asuka takes the microphone. He speaks Japanese and touts a double champion as the crowd cheers them. Asuka says Jax and Baszler were not ready for Asuka, and was certainly not ready for his partner, the Queen. Flair laughs and then nods as The Settler bounces around. Flair asks how RAW Women's Title and says: Friend friend ... but the music stops when Jax and Baszler come around. Tom announces they're meeting Dana Brooke and Mandy Rose later tonight. Jax and Baszler enter the ring and take the microphone. Jax jokes that it took six months to heal Flair's broken arm, but that didn't explain his robot voice. Flair taunts Jax and says he kicked his ass yesterday. Jax says Santa's not the only one with a naughty or nice list, but they don't share coal, they share beatings... Season beatings. Ask Lana or Kaiir Sane. The music stops and comes out Rose and Brooke. Rose and Brooke try to crack jokes about how Jax and Baszler look without headlines this week. They're telling them to move here. Brooke and Rose are in the ring now. Flair asks Asuka if he wants to stay and watch it, and he wants to. Flair's calling the judge to come around. Flair's music hits when he and Asuka head around next to the watch. The other two teams have words when RAW goes to the ad. Dana Brooke and Mandy Rose vs. Nia Jax and Shayna BaszlerBack from the break and Mandy Rose and Shayna Baszler trade keeps &amp; counters to begin with. WWE Women's Champions Charlotte Flair and RAW Women's Champion Asuka have commented. Rose and Baszler continue to go back and forth. Rose's taking it with shoulder thrust. It has become apparent that Asuka Flair is working against Peyton Royce and Lacey Evans today. Dana Brooke ticks in and gets the upper hand from Baszler, sending her to the label. Nia Jax comes and level Brooke with headbutt. Jax runs over Brooke and headbutts her mat again. Jax continues to beat Brooke in the ring, sending her into the corner for a big splash. Brooke comes back and hits the back elbow in the corner. Jax stays on him, but Brooke sends her rotating heads. Rose tags and unloads on Jax, sending her to the floor. Brooke knocks Baszler on the floor from the apron. Brooke and Rose taunt their opponents from the apron. Rose leaps off the apron with a crossbody to Jax. Brooke then flies off the platform to take down Baszler. Brooke and Rose continue to pose ringside in front of the proclaim table. The champions stand up to get a look. Rose brings Jax back around, but Jax knocks him back to the floor from the apron. Jax follows and ends up putting Rose out of the barrier. Jax's going to stand for a long time when we go to the commercial. Back at the break and Rose fights off Jax in the ring, but Jax drops him with ease. Baszler takes over and stretches the Rose mat as fans rally. Jax comes back and they dominate Rose. Rose knocks Jax away, but Baszler runs and knocks Brooke to the platform to avoid the tag. Rose will mount a crime with Baszler now on the clotheslines. Rose with the suplex. Baszler runs into the back of the corner. Rose's unloading on Baszler's corner. Rose with a big knee strike from Baszler as Brooke followed with a splash for the 2 count. Brooke's dropping Baszler again. Brooke goes to the top of Swanton, but Jax pulls Brooke to the floor to break the count. Rose leps off the apron to take Jax down. Brooke with a springboard forearm to send Jax into the apron on the floor. Baszler level with Rose with a kick to the face around. Brooke comes and tries to finish Baszler but Baszler blankets him and hits a big backbreaker. Brooke doesn't have anyone to label. He tangles with Baszler yet, but Baszler goes straight to Kirifuda Clutch to win. Winners: Nia Jax and Shayna Baszler- After the game, Baszler and Jax stand tall as music hits. Baszler and Jax mock the champs from the apron but Brooke and Rose come from behind, knocking Jax and Baszler to the floor.- We see how Hurt Business captured the RAW Tag Team titles on the new day of WWE TLC. We see Hurt Business backstage bullying an employee in a New Day t-shirt now. They put him in a Hurt Business t-shirt and laughed after he was sent off. Back to advertising.- Back for a break and it's time for the Championship Edition VIP Lounge. Out comes The Hurt Business - MVP. WWE USA champion Bobby Lashley, new RAW Tag Team Champions Shelton Benjamin and Cedric Alexander. Tom confirms Riddle and Jeff Hardy vs. MVP and Lashley later today. The MVP takes the mic and says that if ever there was a time for champagne toast in wwe, it is now. He on bragging about why Hurt Business is better than you. Cedric and Benjamin talk about winning titles on New Day at WWE TLC. Cedric said the fire was over because Prime Minister Alexander was here. He said we could forget about pancakes and unicorns now. Lashley talks about how they are the most dominant force in the WWE, and says we can get used to seeing it. He guarantees there's no man alive who can beat him for the title. The MVP has called on the photographer to remember this time. He can picture them in the right image when the photographer gets his camera ready. WWE 24/7 Champion R-Truth is photobombing them from behind, standing in the corner. Here come Erik, Titus O'Neil, Lince Dorado and Akira Tozawa. They chase the truth around and retreat to the stage, around christmas trees and back to the back. The music interrupts the next one and comes out Hardy and Riddle. MVP doesn't think they were invited to celebrate. We see the 24/7 Title chase continues behind Riddle and Hardy as they talk about the stage. Riddle congratulates them on Sunday's victory, but he thinks they're doing the celebration wrong. They spend too much on champagne and the club if they could hang out in the backyard, get roasted with mates, listen to Joe Rogan's podcast or comedy. The mystery goes rambling about how everything is the same and should just calm down. The MVP says we're not the same, and since Riddle doesn't know what he's talking about, neither are they. THE MVP says no one cares about Riddle's hair-brained concepts. Mvp asks what Riddle's talking about. Hardy interrupts and says that life is more than a status, and they tend to live with pride rather than greed. Hardy goes about faith and is on the same page as Riddle seems. Hardy's music hits and they leave together as Hurt Business looks.- Still coming, Randy Orton reacts to the Firefly Inferno game. Back to the commercial. Drew Gulak vs. Angel GarzaBack from the break and Drew Gulak looks in the ring. Angel Garza is backstage with Sarah Schreiber. He asks how he prepared for this game, but he just wants to win and gives him a rose. Garza said he may fight Gulak but he thinks about Schreiber and maybe they can end up in his room under mistletoe later. Garza walks away and Schreiber looks disturbed or annoyed. Garza goes around like Mike Rome does promotions. The bell rings and Gulak backs Garza into the corner. Garza stops him and rips off his pants, throwing Gulak for distraction. Garza attacks and removes. Gulak comes back to the backbreaker. Gulak takes it to the corner, but Garza turns it back. Garza with large right hand and knee ribs for a quick pin test. Garza garden gulak now and works his hand. Gulak turns it around with a section of his stomach. Garza breaks free, shoots in the ribs, dropping Gulak. Garza comes back from sitting down for a slam for the 2 count. Gulak Stones corner with your right hand. Garza's a big shot. They're thinging and Garza nailing the superkick. Garza then follows up the Wing Clipper in the middle of the ring to pin the win. Winner: Angel Garza-After the game, Garza stands tall as his music hits. We're going to do reruns. We'll be back with Garza posing on top of a turnbuckle, smiling down at Gulak.- Tom hypes the MizTV segment later today with AJ Styles. We get a video package that shows how the Miz failed to cash in on TLC last night's TLC match between AJ and WWE Champion Drew McIntyre, who retained it. Charly Caruso stops AJ backstage and asks how he felt when the Miz cashed in last night. AJ tells how he was furious over his boiling point. Charly asks if AJ is so upset, so why did he take the invitation to be on MizTV today? AJ says he wants to know what the Miz has to say to himself, and for his own good, better be good. AJ looked at Omos when he said the last line. We're going back to the ad.- Back for the break and the Miz and John Morrison are in the ring for another must see edition of MizTV. The Miz says you weren't always presented with the opportunity to become a WWE Champion but he had a chance to make history on TLC last night, but he couldn't. Not only did he fail himself, he let his family down, and that's why he's sorry. Morrison said it's not the only excuse to be delivered tonight. The Miz agrees. The Miz then introduces its guest today and comes out to be AJ Styles. AJ poses on stage as the pyro goes out. Omos will come out and join him. They're heading around together. Tom plugs in today's six-man Holiday Street Fight with AJ, Miz and Morrison vs. WWE Champion Drew McIntyre, Sheamus and Keith Lee.There's some tension as soon as they enter the ring, but AJ hold Omos back. The Miz wants to hear AJ's explanation. The Miz goes on and says AJ would have done the same thing... AJ cuts him off and he's heard enough. He calls Miz the biggest idiot on Earth and talks about how incompetent he is. AJ said miz cashed in, and thanks to him, they both lost. The Miz shouts back and gets fired, saying the money in the bank contract was everything. Ten years ago he cashed in and the main events of WrestleMania, and it was supposed to be the same thing this year. The Miz tells how he's fought for respect for 15 years. If he had won the WWE Title again maybe, just maybe, AJ and everyone else would have respected him and he would have taken RAW to new heights. The Miz said all he can do right now is make it up to you. He apologizes to the bottom of his heart and says they were both robbed last night. He admits he screwed up. Miz says it's holidays, time to give, and he can do it right by giving AJ an early holiday gift. He offers AJ the chance to star in the next edition of Marine. We're going to see a Marine 7 mock-up. Omos is involved, but you can barely see AJ. Morrison points out that he's not even on the poster. Everyone still claims AJ and Morrison got heated each exits the ring when Miz gets between Morrison and AJ. Miz points out how they are right, Morrison cashed in on the Miz contract last night, but technically the Miz is the only one who can cash it in as the Miz starts ranting about how he wants a WWE official to regain his MITB title shot because Morrison is the one who cashed it in on Music Interrupts and Comes Out to Be McIntyre. McIntyre points out how he left aj with a gift in his face last night, a scar. He goes on to see how he, Sheamus and Lee came up with a sequel to last week's Nightmare Before the TLC story of Miz, Morrison and AJ. Drew's going to read. Sheamus takes over and appears ringside. Lee's taking the reading thing, and he's in ringside, too. Baby faces have surrounded the circle. They're entering the miz, Morrison and AJ ready to fight. A big brawl is now breaking out for fans of pop. Drew starts Morrison over his head and he flies to the floor. AJ dropkicks Lee into Sheamus as he finished Brogue Kick to the Miz. Sheamus and Lee are arguing now, but Drew gets between them. AJ comes down to the floor with Omos. Drew calms Sheamus to the ground as they stand with Lee in the middle of the ring. AJ, Miz and Morrison are heading for the ramp. We get a video package of recent feuds between Ricochet and revenge. T-BAR vs RicochetMe we go back to the ring and out to be - the retribution of T-BAR with Mustafa Ali, Slapjack, Mace and Reckoning. Back to the commercial. Back for the break and we see Sheamus and Keith Lee arguing back. Drew McIntyre runs up and yells at them to stop. Sheamus stops rushing, and Drew tells Lee to imagine the damage they can do together when they're on the same page. Drew says Lee let him worry about Sheamus and Lee agrees. We're going back around and T-BAR stands tall like the rest of the way waiting in the ring. The next one's Ricochet. Ricochet on the left and right, but T-BAR throws him away. Ricochet takes T-BAR to one knee with shots on his knees. Ricochet yells at the others, but it allows T-BAR to deal with him. T-BAR then throws Ricochet across the ring and Ali reacts with all smiles. T-BAR is now loading Ricochet into the corner, beating him to the ground. T-BAR levels Ricochet huge clothesline near 2 count. T-BAR grounds Ricochet now behind the knee. Fans gather at Ricochet and he fights up and out, but T-BAR clubs him back down. Ricochet sprinkles T-BAR over the top rope on the floor as he blames. Ricochet runs the other way, but has to stop and kick Slapjack off the floor. Ricochet then sangles with Mace at ringside and Mace gets off. T-BAR comes over and nails Ricochet behind as Ali stares Ricochet down. T-BAR brings it back around when Ali preaches to Ricochet from the floor. Ricochet grabs Ali through the ropes and unloads with the strikes, but T-BAR grabs Ricochet from behind, shovels him on the shoulders and drives him to the knee Reversed GTS pin to win. Winner: T-BAR-After the game, music hits when we go to replays. Vengeance hits the circle. T-BAR stands over Ricochet and takes the mic, telling him that they are his allies, not his enemies, and he will either join them or his existence is over. T-BAR drops the mic and screams the blood of the retribution under Ricochet as he looks up at his back.- We see a video from earlier Xavier Woods and Kofi Kingston. Woods says they will win raw tag Team Titles back one day. Kofi gives props to the new RAW Tag Team Champions Hurt Business and talks about losing pieces of teeth in the WWE TLC game. He talks about how New Day bounces back because that's what they do. Orton enters the ring and poses in the corner as most fans boo him. Orton does his signature pose with more pyrotechnics going out from above. Orton takes the mic and goes about being sick and twisted and confused and deranged, and on TLC he proved that he's every one of those things when he burned Fiend Bray Wyatt alive. Other normal people may have a problem if they set a man on fire, but there is no man and Orton is not normal. He enjoyed every second as he stood and looked to burn. Boos are getting louder. Orton kneels in the middle of the circle and says that's exactly where it happened. He sees it and smells it when his eyes close. Orton said the smell of burning meat persists. Orton said he didn't sleep last night because the voices in his head he's used to, which allowed him to rest peacefully at night, those voices were gone. They don't exist in his head after last night and the only ting he hears in his head right now is Fiend gasping for his last breath as the fire grew hotter as the flames grew higher. Orton declares that Fiend is gone and Fiend is no longer, and Orton is the evil son of b---h who took him out. Boos are getting louder. The lights are suddenly starting to go to the arena. Orton rolls out of the ring when the arena turns black. There's a reddish purple light in the ring and there's a fog. Alexa Bliss is there, swinging on the swing set. There's a few more toys. Bliss asks Orton if he was expecting someone else. He said he built it for him, and we call it Alexa's playground. Bliss tells Orton to come around. He says he's probably worried about where He is now. She could be in the tanning salon because She looked like a pale, or She could be on the beach, but she hopes she doesn't get sunburn. She could be at her favorite restaurant to eat her favorite food... He's laughing. Bliss said Orton was right- it was in the ring where you can smell his burning flesh... He said it was just as if Fiend had absorbed the mat. She goes on and says She's home, but if She ever leaves home, she can come to Alexa's playground and if so, it's unlike anything we've ever seen. The lights are stacking up again, and the arena is black when Bliss stares at orton like that. The lights come back up and the announcers play the gravity of the situation. Bliss and Orton are gone.- Announcers show us once again how Charlotte Flair and Asuka won tag team gold with Nia Jax and Shayna Baszler at WWE TLC at Sunday:Charlotte Flair and Asuka vs. Peyton Royce and Lacey EvansMe go back in the ring and out first to be WWE Women's Tag Team Charlotte Flair in this non-title game.
